beauty. It is a land that does not despise its rural and maritime roots. It is known for its old town, lively marina and proximity to several beaches.

The Portimão Museum is housed in a restored 19th-century canning factory with exhibits on local history.

The Gothic-style church of Our Lady of Conception has tiles.

To the south is Praia da Rocha, with ochre cliffs as a backdrop and the medieval fort of Santa Catarina de Ribamar.

The most beautiful beaches of Portimão extend for eight kilometers of fine golden sand, harmonious ochre cliffs, the warm sun, the warm blue sky and the crystal green sea, which create idyllic scenery for those who live in the Algarve.
